

American Water Resources Association
National Capital Region Section

Presents:

Stream and Wetland Restoration Through the Mid-Atlantic States:

Save the Date

Multiple Presentations featuring:

Joseph Pfeiffer

Mr. Pfeiffer is an environmental scientist specializing in stream and wetland restoration throughout the State of North Carolina. Mr. Pfeiffer will discuss the state of the art of environmental restoration utilizing Full Delivery Projects.

Kathy Hoverman

Ms. Hoverman is a professional engineer working in the Mid-Atlantic region. Ms. Hoverman will present a case study on the Woodrow Wilson Fish Passage.

Gary Mryncza

Mr. Mryncza is a professional engineer working in the stream and dam removal arenas. He will be presenting a Case study in dam removal and stream restoration for the Sylvan lake dam in New Jersey.

Moderated By

Nathan J. Beil

Mr. Beil is President of KCI Technologies, an employee owned company headquartered in Sparks Maryland providing multi-discipline engineering services throughout the Unites States

Details:

Thursday, January 24, 2013
5:30 pm Dinner Social
6:30 pm Panel Discussion
$20 members/$30 non-members/$10 students

ICPRB

51 Monroe Street, Suite PE-08

Rockville, MD 20850

Event registration and membership is available online at: <http://www.awra.org/state/natcap/>.